Fellow:

Fellows must be Board eligible or Board Certified Dermatologists, having the degree of M.D. or D.O., meeting the criteria of the American Board of Dermatology or the American Board of Osteopathic Dermatology. Fellows shall hold full voting privileges.

Early Career Physician:

The Early Career Physician is a subcategory under the Fellow membership class. Any physician who meets the Fellow membership requirements above and is in the first three years of medical practice shall be designated as an Early Career Physician and shall hold full voting privileges.

Resident Fellow:

Resident Fellows must be active full time in a dermatology residency or fellowship approved by the American Board of Dermatology or the American Board of Osteopathic Dermatology. Resident Fellows shall have no voting privileges. Resident Fellow status shall cease upon graduation, at which point a Member-In-Training may upgrade his or her membership to Early Career Physician.
