EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

A Message from PAD President, Nadia Sundlass, MD, PhD, FAAD

The 56th Annual PAD 2024 meeting is being held live and in-person at The Westin Philadelphia between September 19 and 22, 2024 in Philadelphia, PA.

Our 2023 meeting in Hershey was an educational and enjoyable event for our attendees. It was a wonderful opportunity to learn about updates in dermatology and meet with friends and colleagues, both old and new. We look forward to offering a similarly excellent event for our upcoming meeting.

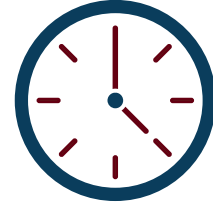

Each year the PAD Annual Meeting has engaging talks, top speakers, and panel discussions designed to update you on the topics vital to our practice of dermatology. Our accomplished faculty will present in-depth, cutting-edge material covering a wide array of medical, procedural, advocacy, billing & coding, as well as dermatopathology topics in dermatology. Audience engagement is encouraged, with Dr. Harry Nevus and the Mole Bowl being an annual highlight.

I am looking forward to seeing you all in Philadelphia. September is the perfect time to experience many of Philadelphia's attractions including Center City, Philadelphia's Magic Gardens, popular museums, outdoor parks, and so much more.

We recognize there are many dermatology meetings to choose from and I sincerely appreciate you choosing to learn with us. I look forward to seeing you at the 2024 meeting!
